Dinner 7:00 p.m.
Speaker 8:00 p.m.

LOCATION: Charcoal House
9566 Murray Drive (Exit I-8 at Murray Drive/Grossmont Boulevard), La Mesa, California

SPEAKER: Charles G. "Mike" Bemis, Project Engineering Geologist with Woodward-Clyde Consultants in San Diego. Mike has been involved with several overseas projects in the last five years, with a large portion of his interests directed to geological investigation in the Mideast.

TOPIC: "Quarry Investigations and Logistics---Saudi Arabia"

ANNOUNCEMENTS: The Engineering Geology students at San Diego State University have organized to form the Student Association of Engineering Geologists in order to become more accessible to its variables, related fields, and local industries.
All local college students interested in participation in this socio-academic interest may contact S.A.E.G. at 287-3012 or 286-5483. We are in the process of filing for a student chaptership of the National Association of Engineering Geologists and need your help.

Rich Berggreen was elected by members in attendance at the February 28 S.D.A.G. meeting to replace Tom Kuper as treasurer of the organization. Welcome aboard, Rich!
